

“In order to prevent and effectively treat mental health disorders the community needs to be provided with resources on causes, symptoms, and warning signs so they can better support those who may be struggling with mental health concerns. This initiative is a wonderful way to teach, raise awareness, and provide factual information on this subject. It will help shine the light and give hope to those experiencing darkness and despair.”

- Danielle Rupp, Volunteer